the entire road to Sandy Valley.

Liz Warren noted concern that the north slope on Reimann Road still does not have any signage or stripes on it.

Monica Beisecker asked Meggan about the name of the street in front of her house. It was suggested it be named back to Platina Street again. Meggan will check into it.

COMMUNITY CONCERN

There was discussion regarding clean-up of Goodsprings properties in preparation for the Old Spanish Trails monument installation in October. The news media, TV, and speakers will be here for the event. Susan Brager might possibly be here also. Republic trash pick-up for Goodsprings Community is September 13, 2014. Meggan suggested getting Boy Scouts and volunteers to come help for the people that are physically unable to help. She also suggested applying for a grant to have a BBQ. She will send out mailers to notify all residents of the clean-up. She will also see about having more trash containers delivered. We should try to get the kids around town involved in helping also.

There was a discussion to see about a summer program for the Goodsprings children. Meggan will talk to Jane Pike to try to get games and crafts. Ruth Rawlinson also will talk to Parks and Recreation to see if they will supply games and crafts.

CORRESPONDENCE
